

COX STICKING TO HARDING TRAIL IN OHIO BATTLE

Rushes Into Akron From Youngstown Soon After G. O. P. Leader Leaves.

IS BESET BY HECKLERS
Rough and Tumble Time as Queries Come In Thick and Fast.

CONGRESS RECORD GIVEN
Governor Says Senator, Champion Reactionary, Dodged 1,163 Roll Calls.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Gov. Cox picked up the hot trail of Senator Harding in Akron to-night, following the Republican nominee into this city of rubber tire manufacturers by only twenty-four hours. It was the closest the opposing nominees had come to each other during the campaign and served as evidence of the exceedingly bitter fight in progress between the two to carry their home State of Ohio in the election. The Ohio Governor had a difficult time trying to overcome the impression made last night by the Ohio Senator in this normally Republican stronghold of the Buckeye State.

Gov. Cox made the follow up the vehicle of the most vicious attack yet directed at his Republican opponent, undertaking to disprove his declarations that as a Presidential nominee he is "unpledged, unowned and unbiased." He asked a series of pertinent questions, chief of them pertaining to the incidents that precipitated the nomination at the Chicago convention, and then entered upon a long declaration of history in an attempt to prove that Senator Harding is a base plotter, one of a ring, trying to capture the Presidency for selfish purposes. He brought forth Senator Harding's record in Congress, presented it at a mass meeting of Democrats in the Goodyear factory, in an effort to show him to be a reactionary.

"No man in America can match the record of Senator Harding in his opposition to progress," said Gov. Cox, "and that is the basis of his opposition to the League of Nations. The people of America who are for the league are progressive because the covenant writes for the world the most progressive, the most humanitarian and the most righteous code it ever has known. The alignment of the candidate on this, as on domestic progress, is definite."

Opens Attack on Harding.
In his speech to-night, Gov. Cox departed to a considerable extent from the method of appeal for votes, for he touched more on domestic issues than he had in the past, when the League of Nations occupied most consideration. The discussion of domestic issues came about through the attack on Senator Harding, whose record in Congress he cited to show he is an enemy of business, of labor and of peace.

This speech in Akron and the one earlier in the day at Youngstown, with a few addresses of incidental importance at intermediate towns, came about through the strategy of Ed J. Moore, campaign manager for Gov. Cox, in his vigorous attempt to save Ohio at least for the Democratic nominee, thereby preserving for him a place in the leadership of the Democratic party. The territory in which the campaigning was done to-day is heavily Republican, even though industrial, and its vote is so large that it might easily swamp the Democratic ticket.

Summit county, of which Akron is the county seat, with Mahoning county, in the West, Youngstown, a city of 100,000, adjacent to Stark, the home and stronghold of William McKinley.

In the speech in Akron Gov. Cox repeated the declaration of Senator Harding that he was unpledged, unowned and unbiased, and that he had made no promises not included in the Republican platform save one, which was to organize a department of public welfare. He asked the following questions, he said, "to ascertain whether his statement is true."

Asks of Pledge to Vireck.
"Does your platform authorize you to make a pledge to George Vireck and to declare for a separate peace with Germany to secure, as he says, six millions of votes of the pro-German party in America?"

"Did your platform give you the right to make promises to George Reynolds, the Chicago banker, who on the basis of conference with you assures his friends that you will permit amendments to the Federal reserve act so that none but bankers may sit upon the Federal reserve board and thus again restore the control of the money interests of America to a small group of bankers?"

"What promise did you make, not authorized in your platform, to Charles B. Warren, vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee, who warrants him in saying in his letter of October 20, soliciting funds from directors of corporations, that they should measure their contributions on the basis of what Republican success is worth to you and your corporate interest and send in your pledges accordingly?"

"What promises have you made to

Cox's Claim Is False, Says Gold Star Mother

MRS. HERBERT H. WINSLOW of Hastings on Hudson said yesterday:

"As a Gold Star Mother I wish to emphatically protest against one utterly false and misleading statement credited to Gov. Cox by the newspapers in the reports of his speech in New York last Saturday night. He declared that every Gold Star Mother is in favor of the League of Nations."

"I have talked with many Gold Star Mothers and Fathers and so has my husband, who is one of the directors of the Gold Star Association of America, and neither of us has ever found a Gold Star Mother or Father who was in favor of Wilson and Cox's League of Nations."

Harry M. Daugherty, corporation lobbyist, and what promises he was authorized to make for his own party to secure your nomination at Chicago?"

"Slave to Big Business."

Quoting again Senator Harding's declaration, Gov. Cox asserted that if the situation were the result of a treaty it would be a joke. The Republican nominee cannot expect any one to take him seriously, said he, in view of his public record, which he asserted showed him to be "one in bondage to the big business and the corporate interests of the country." His entire public record, it was added, had been a record of turning his back on every proposal for progress.

"He has been in this State always the leader of reactionary forces. We have met more in line alignment and I welcome the situation as it exists now. The reactionary Senatorial clique has not dared to meet the issues squarely. Its candidate has been attempting to wiggle and wabble himself into the Presidency and to evade his own unenviable record of reactionary votes throughout the years. He has not dared bring into comparison that record with mine by discussing what he has done."

"In the conspiracy formed by Lodge and Smoot and Penrose and Newberry and Harding it was carefully boasted that if Congress failed to relieve the people of the burdens of war they would blame the Administration and in their resentment a reactionary Republican Front would be organized. The reactionary plan from the start purposed to bring back into control the same old gang which Roosevelt drove out in 1912. This was entirely evident when the congressional assembly at George Harvey's room on that fateful morning and cast over the list of names to select as the candidates the most traitorous reactionaries of them all."

"Senator Harding never championed one big constructive measure in all his public life. After leading the opposition to the constitution which brought the new order in Ohio, his comment thereon was: 'The revolution in Ohio is on.' He has invariably followed the lead of Penrose and Lodge. His reward is the Presidential nomination. In every important contest between capital and labor he has voted with capital."

Anti-Strike Plan Favored.
"He voted for the anti-strike provision in the Cummins bill and dodged an amendment to strike it out. He voted for a longer work day for Government employees. He voted six times for the 'stop watch' system for labor in the army and in the navy yards. He voted against raising to $50 the pay of soldiers serving overseas. On every important question involving the welfare of the general public as opposed to private greed he voted for private greed."

"He voted for the private control and manufacture of munitions of war in the face of charges of gigantic profits being made from the war by munition factories—and this is one of the evils eliminated in the League of Nations."

"He voted against an appropriation to establish a Federal employment bureau, a measure favored by labor and by public spirited citizens everywhere. He voted against limiting the net income of corporations to 8 per cent, but in favor of 7 per cent. He spoke and voted against a tax on large corporations. He voted against exempting the income of large corporations from corporation income tax."

"He voted a number of times against increases in taxes on war profits and large incomes, which tax the poor and the middle class upon small business men and persons of moderate means. He voted against an adequate appropriation for the Federal Trade Commission, whose duty it is to investigate illegal and unfair practices by big business and to protect the honest business men of the country."

Rural Credits Bill Dodged.
"He failed to vote on the rural credits bill. On proposals to extend freedom and a helping hand to humanity he habitually voted no. He voted against an appropriation of $100,000,000 to feed the hungry people of Europe, introduced and spoke for a resolution to send American marines to Baku to protect speculative oil interests."

"He voted against extending independence to the Philippines within two to four years. He voted against a provision that the Philippine Government shall be republican in form and establish a constitution popularly approved. He voted against the principle of self-determination, whether of Ireland or other countries, in amendments proposed in the Senate."

"When he has not been definite and outspoken in behalf of special interests he has been evasive, and holds the record of having dodged 1,163 roll calls and quorum calls in the Senate."

Gov. Cox had a rough and tumble encounter with hecklers, particularly at Youngstown, where one of them blantly got up in his seat and declared that after November 2 Gov. Cox would be at his home in Dayton playing pinch. The Democratic nominee ignored the statement except to remark that some persons have no manners.

"Let it be a fact, Governor," asked a heckler, "that the defeat of the Wilson pact was due to the defection of the Democratic Senators?"

"The answer is no such thing as a Wilson pact," was the answer. "How could it be called a Wilson pact when all he had to do with it was to pass with other members of the Senate the peace table? President Taft and the League to Enforce Peace had worked upon the league two years before President Wilson gave it any attention."

WILSON WRITES COX TO COVER UP BREACH

Tells Democratic Nominee of His Admiration for Course of Campaign.

CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED
President Signs Missive as 'Your Gratiified and Loyal Supporter.'

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—President Wilson, New York Herald Bureau, Oct. 29.—Evidently worried by the widening breach in the Democratic battle lines, due to divergent positions on the League of Nations, President Wilson made a hasty last minute effort to-day to make it appear that he and Gov. Cox are still "at one" in their attitude on the issue.

The President sent to Gov. Cox a letter in which he informed the Democratic nominee that he admired his campaign, that he believed Cox would be elected and that he had entire confidence that under Gov. Cox's leadership the Government would be carried forward "along the path of liberal legislation and humane reform."

Pleasing as these words must have been to Gov. Cox and his group in the Democratic party they failed to explain much. Only two days ago Mr. Wilson in an appeal to the country related his uneasiness about the League of Nations, the position he had held from the first—that it is the "heart of the covenant" and must not be tampered with. Two days before that appeal Gov. Cox, speaking at Huntington, W. Va., said he would accept the last reservations he could get from the Senate, two-thirds of which would certainly oppose Article X.

President Wilson makes absolutely no attempt to explain these divergent positions in his letter, which reads:

29th of October, 1920.
My Dear Gov. Cox:
As the campaign approaches its climax, I want to give you my pleasure of writing to you with what admiration I have followed your course throughout the campaign. You have spoken truly and fearlessly about the great issues at stake, and I believe that you will receive the emphatic endorsement of the voters of the country. As one of those voters, and as one of your fellow citizens, I want to express my entire confidence in you and my confident hope that under your leadership we may carry the policy of the national Government forward along the path of liberal legislation and humane reform, until the whole world again sees an illustration of the wholesome strength of democracy and the happy fruit of what the founders of the Republic purposed when they set this great Government up.

"I am glad to see you, your gratified and loyal supporter,
WOODROW WILSON.

OPPRESSION BY CAPTAIN COSTIGAN IS CHARGED

Brownsville Residents Say Arrests Are Unjustified.

Capt. "Honest Dan" Costigan, in command of the Brownsville precinct, is charged with "the prosecution and oppression of the people who live in the section of Brooklyn known as Brownsville" in a formal complaint made yesterday to Mayor Hylan by Joseph Goldstein, candidate of the Farmer-Labor party in Brooklyn for the Supreme Court bench. Goldstein states in his complaint that forty-seven arrests were made in Brownsville last Saturday and Sunday on charges of loitering or loitering by policemen acting under instructions from Capt. Costigan.

Goldstein asserts in his complaint that he has been transferred to Brownsville from Manhattan, "in order to make trouble in Brownsville so that he could be retransferred to the place he came from." He added that all those arrested were discharged in the New Jersey Avenue Court, where he appeared as their counsel, "because they were unjustly arrested."

INCOME TAX DODGER IS FINED $1,000
Accountants Also Held on Charge of Fraud.

Morris Schwartz, a member of the firm of Berse & Schwartz, cotton goods dealers, of 40 West Twenty-second street, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Julius M. Mayer in the United States District Court to an indictment charging him and his partner, Charles Berse, with making a false income tax return for the purpose of defrauding the Government.

Schwartz was fined $1,000 and put in custody of Marshal Thomas D. McCarthy for a day. Judge Mayer said in a plea similar to that of his partner.

In connection with the case against Schwartz Morris Rathmil and Abraham L. Samuelson, the public accountants who made out the alleged fraudulent returns, also were indicted, and upon entering pleas of not guilty they were required to file bonds of $500 each for trial. Each of the defendants also had bonds aggregating $1,000 for alleged participation in a series of income tax frauds.

SHIP ADRIFF WITH 50 ABOARD MINUS WATER

Cuban Gunboat Fails to Find Dangerous Derelict.

The steamship Rambler, plying between Key West and Havana, was reported drifting southwest of Santiago, Cuba, with fifty passengers aboard and no water. In a wireless despatch received here to-night by the Naval Communications Service, the message said a Cuban gunboat sent to the rescue had returned and reported no trace of the vessel could be found.

The wireless despatch was sent from the station at Jamaica, West Indies, and was intercepted by the steamship City of Sherman, which relayed it to New York. The message said:

"At 8:30 P. M. steamer Rambler reported drifting southwest of Santiago. Rambler has fifty passengers and no water. Cuban gunboat sent to rescue returned, reporting no trace of Rambler."

BARCELONA CARS TIED UP.
BARCELONA, Oct. 29.—Street car service in Barcelona was stopped by a strike among the employees. Discussions are continuing regarding the raising of the city of street car fares here to meet the high cost of living.

Japan Highly Interested in Vanderlip Concession

TOKIO, Oct. 29.—The reports that Washington D. Vanderlip of California has secured large concessions in Siberia have created great interest in Japan. The Foreign Office is quoted as declaring that it has received no direct confirmation of the granting of the concessions, but that it appears from advices received from the United States that there is some truth in the reports.

NEW YORK G. O. P. TO SEND 7 TO HOUSE

Republican Leaders Expect to Win Doubtful Districts.

According to present indications the Republicans will gain about seven seats in the House of Representatives from New York State at the coming election. The First and Second districts, Republican and Democratic, respectively, will remain as they are. The Third District, Kings County, which is strongly Democratic, is now represented by John McCrate, Republican, because a fight in the Democratic ranks resulted in his getting the Democratic as well as the Republican nomination two years ago. The district is expected to go back to the Democrats this year.

The Republicans now have the Sixth and Ninth districts in Kings. These will be held and a second victory there the Fifth will be taken away from the Democrats and that Col. Adolph L. Kline will win.

It is looked upon as probable that the Republicans will also take the Eighth and Ninth districts away from the Democrats, which would be a gain of two in the House of Representatives.

There is a possibility, Republican leaders say, that they will take the Seventh District, although it has always been strongly Democratic. This is due to the wonderful fight made by Michael J. Hogan.

Only two of the Congress districts in Manhattan are represented by Republicans now—the Eleventh and Twelfth. As a matter of fact the former is not represented at all since F. H. La Guardia resigned. They expected to elect to Congress with which Walter M. Chandler in the Nineteenth and Martin C. Anson in the Twentieth.

In the Twenty-fourth district Benjamin L. Fairchild expects to be returned to Congress. He is not serving now, but was when he was defeated by James V. Dewar, Democrat, two years ago. Above this district, which is largely in Westchester, there is little chance for the Republicans to gain, for the reason that they have all except one seat now. That is the Party-second, held by Representative James M. Mead of Buffalo. Republican leaders declare they are going to take even that away from the Democrats, electing C. Hamilton Cook of Long Island.

Republicans expect to gain two State Senators in Kings county, in the Fourth and the Sixth districts, and three in New York county, the Fifth, Seventh and Twelfth districts.

The Twenty-second Senate District in the Bronx is likely to be carried by Edmund Selig, the Socialist candidate.

DEMOCRATS BEATEN ON LEAGUE, SAYS HUGHES

Accuses Cox of Repudiating His Own Platform.

SHAWNEE, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Charles Evans Hughes told an audience here to-night that the Democratic party had been beaten on the League of Nations issue "upon which the President demanded a great and solemn referendum." He also declared that Gov. Cox "seeks to jettison the platform which but yesterday he unequivocally indorsed," and scored the present Administration as "un-American."

"Upon this issue upon which the President demanded a great and solemn referendum and which the Democratic platform formally presented," said Mr. Hughes, "the Democratic party has been beaten. The more the question has been discussed the more indefensible the covenant" with its Article X, has appeared to be.

"Persevering this, the Democratic candidate (Cox) is attempting in a state of panic, he seems to be trying to disown Mr. Wilson and to repudiate his platform. Before the end of the week he may be trying to run on the Republican platform."

Declaring that until recently Gov. Cox has been extolling Article X, to which he gave his approval in his speech of acceptance to President Wilson, Mr. Hughes continued:

"Of what avail are the political promises of a candidate who in the moment of extremity seeks to jettison the platform which but yesterday he unequivocally indorsed?"

Turning to the Administration, Mr. Hughes said:

"We have never had an administration that has talked more of democracy and never has there been one more undemocratic. It is not too much to say that in the last four years with the exception of Russia, the American Government has been the most autocratic in the Western world, and this has resulted in neither expertise, economy nor efficiency."

669 ABSENTEES "VOTE."

Fifty-five ballots Are Thrown Out for Irregularities.

A total of 669 absentee votes had been received by mail in the offices of the Board of Elections in the Municipal Building at closing time yesterday, according to John H. Voorhis, president of the board. The votes are from voters who will be absent from the city on Tuesday and who had taken advantage of the new method of voting by mail. Of the total number of votes received 55 were declared invalid because of improper voting. There were 1,046 absentee votes sent out from the election offices upon receipt of applications. It was announced that 250 applications were rejected because they reached the office later than October 18.

Of the absentee votes, 350 are for precincts in Manhattan, 93 for The Bronx, 42 for Queens, 26 for Richmond and 33 for Brooklyn.

TRADE VOTES TO AID SMITH, FINAL ORDER

Democratic Leaders Send 'Urgent and Important' Directions to Faithful.

MUST REELECT GOVERNOR
Walker to Be Sacrificed and Wadsworth Helped, Is Decree from Tammany.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, ALBANY, Oct. 29.—Desperate over the steady sweep of the tide against the Democratic party and beginning to feel that everything is lost, the New York State leaders are making a last minute frantic effort to save one candidate—Gov. Alfred E. Smith—out of the wreckage.

It is said here that orders have gone out to three overboard Lieut.-Gov. Harry C. Walker, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate and to offer votes for Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., Republican, in return for support of Gov. Smith's chair.

"Urgent and important" is the way these orders read, it is said. No stone must be left unturned to secure the reelection of the Tammany occupant of the Governor's chair.

So far as can be learned the Democrats have not been successful in securing absolute promises of support for Smith in return for Wadsworth votes. A month ago this offer might have been attractive, but as the campaign has gone on the Republicans have become confident that Wadsworth would be reelected in spite of anything the Democrats could do.

In some quarters where the Governor is popular personally Democrats are saying the Republicans are glad of an excuse to vote for him and for that reason are listening to the proposition of a "vote for Wadsworth for a vote for Smith."

Rumors that have reached here from New York city say that Tammany is carrying its desperate drive for Smith to the extent of offering votes for the Republican candidates for the Supreme Court bench in return for Smith ballots.

Nothing that might help push Smith over the goal will be left undone by the Democratic leaders.
